

GOVERNMENT HOUSE
QUEENSLAND

PROTOCOL AND ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES

ROLE OF THE HOST

The host should be the most senior person from the host organisation. The host should meet the Governor, and his wife Mrs Kaye de Jersey (if attending), at the vice-regal vehicle on arrival, escort to the venue, and accompany throughout the function. If this is not possible, responsibility should be allocated to another appropriate person.

The host should present guests to the Governor; the host's spouse/partner (or other representative of your organisation) should present guests to Mrs de Jersey.

GREETINGS AND FORMS OF ADDRESS

The Governor

The appropriate way to greet the Governor initially is "Your Excellency", and thereafter, as "Your Excellency", "Sir", or "Governor".

Mrs de Jersey

"Mrs de Jersey" on all occasions

If there is an MC at an event, or an announcement at the beginning of an event, the Governor should be addressed first (i.e. "Your Excellency, Distinguished Guests ..., Ladies and Gentlemen").

The Governor should be introduced as "His Excellency the Honourable Paul de Jersey AC, Governor of Queensland".

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE

At major functions, guests should be asked to stand for the Governor's arrival. The usual form of announcement is:

"Ladies and Gentlemen, please stand for the arrival of the Governor of Queensland, His Excellency the Honourable Paul de Jersey AC, and (if applicable) Mrs Kaye de Jersey".

Alternatively, guests can be asked to stand for the arrival of the official party.

The appropriateness of announcing the Governor's arrival and departure from your event should be discussed beforehand with the ADC/Aide (for example, the Governor's arrival should not be announced when entering a church or chapel).

SEATING

Dais

When arranging seating plans for a dais, you should seat the Governor to the right of the host, and the next most senior guest to the host's left, and so on, alternating by seniority. Mrs de Jersey may be seated either on the dais or in the front row of the audience with the attending ADC/Aide.

Table

At a dining table, the Governor sits to the right of the host. If Mrs de Jersey is present, she will normally be seated to the right of the host's spouse/partner.

The attending ADC/Aide should be seated at the closest table with clear visibility to the Governor.

Prior to guests assembling at the table, the host or his/her designated representative should introduce the Governor and Mrs de Jersey to guests who will be seated with them.

Religious Service

SEAT AND PLACE CARDS

Seat and place cards should read:

Governor of Queensland

Mrs Kaye de Jersey

SPEECHES

The Governor will speak at a function only by prior agreement, and normally a speech request received at short notice will not be considered.

The Governor's speeches are made available to the public on the Government House website after the event.

TOASTS

It is not a requirement to offer a toast to the Governor at functions. However, there are occasions (usually at formal dinners) when it is appropriate to do so.

If you wish to include toasts in the proceedings, please consult with the Aide/ADC/Aide prior to the function.

ANTHEMS

It is not always necessary to play an anthem at functions attended by the Governor. However, when considering whether the National Anthem or the Vice-Regal Anthem should be played, please consult with the ADC/Aide prior to the function.

GIFTS

The Governor does not expect to be presented with gifts and the exchange of gifts is discouraged. However, if a gift is being considered please advise the ADC/Aide in advance.

PLAQUE INSCRIPTIONS

Plaque inscriptions for the Governor should read:
